

TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 2005

DUO RETURNS TO ROOTS

BY TONY SIMMONS ASSISTANT MANAGING EDITOR-NEWS

A longtime local favorite, the musical duet Gilligan Loves Maryann has been absent from the beach scene for some time while Fletch and Amy Fletcher moved their base of operations to Nashville and promoted a CD of original material, Sterling Fletcher. But today they return to their sandy roots when they bring their cover versions of beach songs, Southern rock, country, jazz — you name it, and I'll bet they can play it. They'll perform at the Lynn Haven Concerts in the Park series at Sharon Sheffield Park at 6:30 p.m. tonight. They'll also be at Under the Boardwalk, the new beach club at Boardwalk Beach Resort this Friday and Saturday, and they'll play McKenzie Park on Aug. 11 for the Bay Arts Alliance Concerts in the Park series.

Find out more about their lives on the road and the stories behind their music at www.gilliganmusic.com.

or

www.gilliganlovesmaryann.com

GLM press archive www.gilliganlovesmaryann.com

